

November 2014

Browse an archive of all of the content on the site.

Search

Type

Apply

Reset

The Leaders Corner - Kevin McCort, Vancouver Foundation

Blog

Denise Baker

November 5, 2014

0

Kevin McCort grew up on a farm in Ontario, with no conscious career goal except not to be a farmer. Little did he know that his eventual career choices would make him a potential kidnap target, see him caught in cross fire in a war zone and experience being charged by a large hippo (not all on the same day!).

The theme of travel has been constant in Kevin's leadership journey. It began with his first trip to the wilds of Alberta with 4H, which opened his eyes to the world. At 17 years old, he travelled to Borneo with Canada World Youth, and from there experienced many other journeys including...

Read more about The Leaders Corner - Kevin McCort, Vancouver Foundation

Add comment