

Conflict & Challenging Conversations

Date:

November 17, 2020 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Type:

Workshops

Topic:

Human Resources

Audience:

Executive Directors

Managers

Emerging Leaders

Move past conflict to strengthen relationships and your organization

Do you foster an environment for healthy conflict?

Conflict can be productive or unproductive. Healthy, productive conflict brings forward new ideas and perspectives to strengthen your organization. In this half-day workshop, you will learn how to embrace productive conflict and develop key skills to resolve unproductive conflict. Engage in healthy conflict and experience the benefits:

- Create a healthier and more productive work environment
- Strengthen relationships
- Enhance trust and accountability

Program Details:

Date & Time: November 17, 2020, 1:00pm - 4:00pm

Location: 1183 Melville Street, Vancouver, BC

Price: Member - $95.00; Non-Member - $115.00

This workshop is ideal for all not-for-profit leaders

Come away from this workshop with the ability to:

- Identify strategies to recognize and embrace productive team conflict
- Develop strategies to depersonalize conflict, respond more effectively to the emotional content of conflict, and focus on the issues that matter
- Apply the process of preparing for, holding, and following up on crucial conversations
- Build confidence and comfort with challenging conversations

Register

Now

City of Vancouver

Bursary

Join Interest

List

Tags:

leadership

conflict

conflict resolution

human resources

management