

Leadership Principles

Understand yourself, your values and gain the confidence to excel as a not-for-profit leader

Leadership Principles strengthens your individual leadership skills and personal attributes to positively impact the effectiveness of your organization.

The Leadership Principles series is a unique professional development offering for not-for-profit managers seeking to enhance their current leadership approach.

Is Leadership Principles Right for You?

You are an ideal candidate of the Leadership Principles program if you:

- are currently working in the not-for-profit sector and thinking about a long term career
- are responsible for leading individuals and teams to deliver results
- have a combination of demonstrating leadership in your current role, along with vision and aspiration to take on further leadership responsibilities in your career

Program Details

Fall 2019

City of Vancouver Bursary Application Deadline: August 19, 2019 at 4 pm

Dates & Time: September 19, September 26, October 3 | 5:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Location: 1183 Melville Street, Downtown Vancouver

Fee: $500

Program Benefits

- You leave this program with greater insight and clarity around your value, new skills for leading teams, and broaden your style and approach.
- You learn concrete skills that support your growth and development as a leader in your current role (and the next!).

Topics

Leadership Principles focuses on two leadership attributes: leads self, and develops talent. Over three sessions, you will look at your own personal leadership approach, as well as developing individuals and developing teams.

- Session 1: Leading Self
- Session 2: Leading Individuals
- Session 3: Leading Teams

Visit the full program outline to find out more about the Leadership Principles program.

Required Course Material

- Top 5 CliftonStrengths (to be completed individually before the start of the course)

Further develop your leadership and team skills to put you on the right career path.

REGISTER
NOW

CITY OF VANCOUVER BURSARY APPLICATION

Questions about Leadership Principles? Get in touch with us:

Rachelle Smalldon

Client Relations Coordinator

(604) 637-8290

rsmalldon@thevantagepoint.ca

INTEREST LIST

City of Vancouver Grantee Organizations can apply for a Leadership Principles bursary via the program's application form. Candidates will be selected by a panel according to specific criteria.