

Not-For-Profit Professional Development & Training | Vancouver, BC

Vantage Point is a not-for-profit that is transforming not-for-profit leadership. We deliver foundational, advanced and custom learning opportunities focused on governance, leadership, planning and human resources for new and seasoned not-for-profit sector leaders, board directors and managers.

Transforming how the not-for-profit sector approaches capacity building can ultimately lead to greater impact and collaboration in the communities and causes they serve. We work with over 10,000 individuals from more than 1500 organizations every year delivering interactive learning that is readily put to use in the wide variety of organizations these people lead.
