About

Ruby Ng

Director

Ruby is the Executive Director for the Disability Foundation, which supports six affiliated charities that provide unique programs to support quality of life for people with physical disabilities. While she began her career in marketing and communications in the private sector, Ruby made a conscious decision to work in the non-profit sector in hopes to make a positive impact more directly in the community. Prior to joining the Disability Foundation, she held leadership roles for the Alzheimer Society of BC and Variety the Children's Charity. She holds a BA, Communications from Simon Fraser University and a MA, Leadership from Royal Roads University.
