About

Maria Turnbull

Associate Executive Director

After working in London and completing her MBA at INSEAD in France and Singapore, Maria Turnbull joined Vantage Point's team in 2006. Rooted in the not-for-profit sector through numerous leadership roles with the British and Canadian Red Cross Societies, OXFAM and Amnesty International, Maria loves collaborating and exploring partnerships in her role as Associate Executive Director at Vantage Point. She strongly believes that the greatest potential citizens have for positive change in the community is through the not-for-profit sector. Maria has settled on Bowen Island with her husband and two little boys. When she isn't travelling or motorcycling around town, Maria relaxes by skiing, hiking and sailing with her family. Ask Maria about innovative partnership opportunities or how to make an investment in Vantage Point's mission.
